2008 Women of Influence

Whether they're finalizing major deals, developing big projects or lending their time and expertise to industry associations or nonprofit groups, these women are movers and shakers on the New York commercial real estate scene. Real Estate New York is continuing its annual tradition of spotlighting the accomplishments of these key players. Here are glimpses into the multifaceted curricula vitae of these Women of Influence, presented in alphabetical order and focusing on their activities in the 12-month period ending September 2008.

Partner

Olshan Grundman Frome Rosenzweig & Wolosky LLP

Rokat is counsel to major office landlords in the Midtown and Downtown markets, retail landlords in the New York metro and sellers and purchasers of high-profile New York City properties. She was featured in New York magazine's special section on women leaders in the law. Quote: "The current credit crisis has placed many deals on hold pending a clearer window into how the economy will look in the near and long terms. The lack of liquidity in the current market exacerbates current problems and will have a serious impact on the local economy and real estate values."
